

Robb Weiland Central Regional Director

Robb Weiland is the Central Regional Director for Dunham & Associates Investment Counsel, Inc., responsible for assisting financial advisors with the growth and reach of their advisory practice. Robb started his career as a Financial Advisor over 20 years ago and brings a wealth of knowledge and credibility to his role.

Because he truly understands what it takes to succeed, Robb is a trusted resource for those seeking to build long-term client relationships and expand their marketing presence. He is adept at successfully sharing the many ways that financial advisors can best benefit from including Dunham's institutionally-managed mutual funds, Asset Allocation Programs and Dunham Trust Company's Nevada-based trust services in their business models to acquire new clients, generate more from existing clients and retain assets across multiple generations.

Prior to joining the firm in 2009, Robb was a Regional Vice President for ING Funds. Before that, he was the Director of Insurance Marketing for AIG Financial Advisors and preceding that he was a Financial Advisor with SunAmerica Securities.

Robb put himself through college and as a result of his hard work and dedication, carries a B.S. in Business Administration from Northern Arizona University. He also holds FINRA Series 6, 63, and 65 registrations and has completed the required coursework set forth by the Certified Financial Planning Board of Standards.

Robb has several outdoor interests, including hiking, mountain biking and riding off-road vehicles. He resides in Austin, Texas with his wife, Melynda, and their son, Cameron. In addition to his other interests, he spends time in his community coaching his son's soccer team and also enjoys traveling with his family.

About Dunham & Associates

In 1985, Jeffrey Dunham founded Dunham with the uncommon idea that fees paid by clients should be tied, in some way, to the performance of the investments they own. Today, Dunham and Dunham Trust have grown to become a multi-billion dollar firm, but we are still driven by the values of fairness and accountability that Jeffrey envisioned more than three decades ago.
