

Sally Yoder, SHRM-CP Director of Human Resources

Sally Yoder is Director of Human Resources at Dunham & Associates Investment Counsel, Inc. (DAIC) and Dunham Trust Company (DTC). She has more than 16 years of experience in human resources and is responsible for strategic and operational human resources at DAIC and DTC – from benefits, talent acquisition and employee relations to implementing and maintaining the company's HRIS.

Sally joined DAIC in November 2017 after 15 plus years of management experience in high tech start-ups, specifically engineering and scientific research and development companies. Prior to joining DAIC, she served as Director of HR for TAE Technologies in Orange County, HR Manager for ATA Engineering in San Diego, and HR Manager for Archimedes Technology Group.

Sally has a B.A. degree in Political Science from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, a Certificate of Human Resource Management from the University of California, San Diego (UCSD), and her SHRM-CP certification.

A long-time resident of San Diego, Sally is the proud mom of a married son who is a chemistry graduate from the University of San Diego. She enjoys hosting UCSD international students, camping, traveling, obsessing over politics, spending time with family and friends, and playing with her adorable black Labrador.

At a Glance

- ✓ Director of Human Resources
- ✓ Responsible for strategic and operational human resources
- ✓ Carries a B.A. Degree in Political Science, a Certificate of Human Resource Management, and her SHRM-CP certification

About Dunham & Associates

In 1985, Jeffrey Dunham founded Dunham with the uncommon idea that fees paid by clients should be tied, in some way, to the performance of the investments they own. Today, Dunham and Dunham Trust have grown to become a multi-billion dollar firm, but we are still driven by the values of fairness and accountability that Jeffrey envisioned more than three decades ago.